ALAN LACER

DEMONSTRATION AND WORKSHOPS

The Woodturners of St. Louis are pleased to announce that Alan Lacer will be in Saint Louis for a demonstration and workshop this September.

Alan has been involved in the woodturning field for over twenty years as a teacher, writer, exhibition coordinator, demonstrator and past president of the American Association of Woodturners. Alan is best known for his great ability to control the tool many woodturners fear the most, the skew. The members and friends of The Woodturners of St. Louis have the unique opportunity to attend an all day demonstration and/or an all day hands on workshop with Alan.

The demonstration is on September 23 and is $30 per person for members and $40 per person for non-members. Youth members of the club, 18 and under, may attend the demonstration for $20 per youth. Seating is limited, so please sign up soon. In addition, there will be two hands-on workshops, to be held on September 24th and 25th, each day will be limited to 6 students and will cost $75 per day. A box lunch will be provided for both the demonstrations and the workshops. The demonstration and workshops will be held at Woodcraft in Creve Coeur 2077 Congressional Drive - St. Louis, MO 63146.

Please call Jo Williams at (636)-375-0022 to sign up and mail attendance fees to Jo at 5551 Eagles View Dr., House Springs, MO, 63051.
